

LIFE OF WORKERS ON PROBATION

1. They promised us that after three months we would become full time workers; we trust our employer and we work very; but in reality our employers just lie to us; they try to deceive us and dismiss us for any little mistake.

2. Probation workers never eat enough; the salary is just $30; we pay for our health care, rent, utilities and food; it hurts my heart at the end of the month as I cannot send any money home.

R. In the Cambodian Labour Code; all workers become full time after three months; but for me, this was stopped by my supervisor as they accused me of violating the law.

3. Our workers voices appeals for help; we want society to help us with this problem; workers have to stand strong in solidarity; to contend with this oppression and discrimination.
