

A KARAOKE GIRL'S LIFE

- I- I have had bad fate in my life since I was born; my life has been different from others. Always facing unhappiness, I bear the family's burden; I bear the shame and sell my voice.
- II- I became a karaoke girl I sing in the karaoke bar I don't want to be here but I am poor. Please don't blame me for being bad I have tried to live in this darkness.
- R- Though I work day and night and never resting, I am still poor I was in debt to the owner. If I take rest, they reduce my money.
- III- The tears of a karaoke girl I am living as a slave, without freedom. I was mistreated by the owner and forced to serve clients.
